The Wetaskiwin Branch of the Alberta Genealogical Society

- We promote, encourage and enable our members to search for family history and ancestry.
- We provide educational opportunities, research guidance, access to library and archival resources as well as opportunities for collaboration, discussion, and publishing articles in our newsletter.
- We meet monthly and proudly volunteer and record our time supporting the local archives and museums and the Wetaskiwin FamilySearch Center.
- We participate in research projects, genealogy presentations, the cemetery recording project, and the collection of community history.
- There are annual membership fees payable to the Alberta Genealogical Society.
